Bishops call for peace in Ukraine

Australian Catholic Bishops Conference president Archbishop Mark Coleridge has expressed indignation at what is happening in Ukraine and called for a rejection of the madness of war and a return to reason, saying "the peace of the world is at stake".

"We express our deep compassion for the people of Ukraine and our solidarity with all people of Ukrainian heritage here in Australia," Archbishop Coleridge said.

"It's not enough to condemn the bloodshed, breathe threats and take half-measures. The entire international community – including Australia – needs to do all in its power to stop the violence. This isn't some geopolitical game. Lives are at stake. The lies have to stop. Truth and justice have to prevail if there is to be a future for all of us.

"Ukraine may seem a long way from Australia, but what's happening there is not. Ukraine has become the world which will never be the same because of this militarised barbarism."

Bishop Mykola Bychok, the leader of the Ukrainian Catholic Church in Australia, said there has been growing fear in his homeland in recent weeks. That fear was realised this week.

"Ukraine is a peaceful nation; we don't want war. An escalated Russian invasion will result in many more dead and injured, millions of refugees, more tears and pain," he said.

"This is a question of life and death as nostalgia for an empire lost has led to senseless slaughter and immense suffering throughout Ukraine."

The Russian invasion of Ukraine, a country whose identity long predates the Soviet Union and which has been widely recognised as a sovereign nation since 1991, is also likely to see the freedom of Ukrainian Catholics to practise their faith curtailed.

"This would be all the more bitter for a Church which for 70 years was persecuted and forced underground," Bishop Bychok said.

Archbishop Coleridge stressed that, as with other countries that have known war in recent years, most recently Afghanistan, "a generous response by the Australian government is needed to help people fleeing violence in Ukraine".

Caritas Australia, part of the Church's international aid and development agency, is working with Caritas Ukraine to provide vital humanitarian assistance for the victims of war.

Pope Francis has appealed to those "with political responsibility to examine their consciences seriously before God, who is the God of peace and not of war, who is the Father of all, not just of some, who wants us to be brothers and sisters and not enemies".

"Prayer is more powerful than bombs. So we'll be praying for an immediate ceasefire and a return to reason and negotiation. We're also praying for those who have been killed, wounded or forced to flee," Archbishop Coleridge said.

This Week's Readings: Deut 26:4-10; Rom 10:8-13; Lk 4:1-13
 Next Week's Readings: Gen 15:5-12,17-18; Phil 3:17-4:1; Lk 9:

PROJECT COMPASSION

Anatercia 12, was struggling to cope with adult responsibilities after her father died. Then she participated in Caritas Australia-supported training and gained access to psychosocial supports. Now, her quality of life has improved and she can focus on school. Please donate to Project Compassion to help young people succeed in the future and bring stability to vulnerable youth like Anatercia. Together, we can help communities face their challenges and build a better tomorrow

BAPTISM WELCOME

We welcome the McCarthy family and their sons, Koby and Albie, the MacMillan family and their son Benjamin, and the Saad family and their daughter Ella. May Koby, Albie, Benjamin and Ella's baptisms be a happy and a memorable occasion and may God continue to bless their parents in this special step that they have taken to proclaim and support their children in the Christian faith.

LOCAL MINISTRY TRAINING PROGRAM

Due to the fact that the Diocesan liturgical ministry formation program is oversubscribed we (the parish team) have decided to conduct our own program for Senior Servers (acolytes) and Special Ministers of the Eucharist for the assembly and for the sick. It will take place on Tuesday afternoons from 3:30pm to 5pm in the Church beginning on 15 March for four weeks. Teachers from the school will also be joining the program. If you would like to take on any of these ministries (and you are eighteen years or older), please email the parish office or connect with one of the parish team.

LENTEN PROGRAM GROUPS

This year the Parish is offering a Lenten Program for Year C called 'Restoring Freshness in the Time of Lent' by Melbourne priest, Michael Elligate, a Garratt publication. Parishioners may like to host groups either physically or virtually via zoom (or something similar). Marianne Dwyer has offered to host a group and can be contacted on 0418 641 412. Times and days can be negotiated. Robert Haddad also hosts a group and can be contacted on 0414 661 038 for details. Those who wish to utilise the program individually are welcome to do so and copies of the program are available today from the church foyer.

SUNDAY NIGHT SESSIONS

A series of presentations, seminars, workshops, discussions, and stories designed to invite adults (young and old) to grow and develop in their faith. Each session begins at 7.00pm and finishes at 8.30pm and is held in the CTK Parish Hall or Church. Sessions are designed to provide an opportunity for participants to ask questions, share thoughts and ideas and learn new stuff. The aim of the sessions is to further develop a community of mature inquisitive Catholics at Christ the King. Everyone 16 and over is welcome to participate.

Sunday Night Sessions are to be held on the 2nd Sunday of the month from February to November. A Gold Coin Donation to assist with the cost of coffee, tea and biscuits is welcome. The next session on the 13th March takes up the theme of Reconciliation as Tom Peat explores a practical method of promoting and achieving reconciliation.

The April session is on the contemplative method of reading Scripture LECTIO DIVINA and is to be presented in the Church by Dawn Peat.

The May session is on Carmelite Prayer and is to be presented by Lorraine Murphy OCDS. Details to follow.

For more information or if you want to assist with organizing these sessions contact Deacon John through the parish office or via email john.collins@parracatholic.org.

BEQUESTS (Please contact the Parish Office for further information)

Many of us have a special connection to our parish, nurtured by years of faith-sharing, schooling, friendships and support. A bequest to your parish, no matter how small, will help the faith community which has meant so much to you to continue its good works and its loving outreach. It is also a means by which you can plan a lasting gift for your parish which might not be possible in your lifetime. In receiving a bequest, a parish may be able to use the gift to attend to much needed maintenance and improvements to the church and other parish property. These kinds of gifts help the Parish free up other income to use toward pastoral care programs.
